EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORTS

CHAIR: Nothing to report. -Bekka H

VICE CHAIR: Nothing to report. -Maddie G

SECRETARY: Hello SENANA, as we have had some changes in meetings as of late. I am strongly encouraging groups to submit their monthly group reports and financials via the secretarysenana@gmail.com email address. I did not receive a budget from the Literature committee. I got in contact with Doris R and she agreed to contact Dennis E and figure out a budget. Doris expressed needing additional help since there have been so many new groups added to the Area. In loving service -Savea V

RCM: Hello SENANA, I attended Region in Norfolk last month, and have 1 proposal to send back to groups. Also there are several nominations to be voted on before the next region. They include Morgan from Omaha for the Alternate Secretary position, Courtney of Norfolk for the Alternate Regional Delegate, and Barry B to move up to the Regional Delegate position. I dont have bio's but I imagine they'll be in the regions minutes when they come out and groups can locate them before voting. Barry B is also going to serve as the IT chair temporarily as the former chair has left the fellowship as of this time. We have several positions open and needing filled at the region level which include Vice Treasurer, Fellowship Development, and the before mentioned IT position. So if you have a heart to serve, the know-how and availability get your butt to the Region and do it already. I'd also like to say that proposal 4? Was shut down and the money in question was sent down the road as policy dictates. I feel our area did what was correct on this and we were one of two areas that sent no votes and after discussing why we voted that way other areas voiced agreement. I advised H&I to come up with an actual plan for distribution and put it in their budget and I'm sure we'd deliver a yes vote at that time. Also our area has won the bid to host Region in April so that'll be at 45th & A on April 10th. Kim Rs gonna be in charge of that I believe so I'm sure she'll be needing some volunteers and that'll be a NRCNA fundraiser so be there. January region is in Fremont January 9th at Sinai Lutheran Church, 950 E 8th St. I think that's it. I'm grateful to serve.
-Seth B.

RCM ALTERNATE: Nothing to report. -Kris B

TREASURER: "Due to my breaking my ankle, I will not be able to drive. Since the church has an elevator, I should be able to attend the next ASC meeting but will need assistance with transportation to and from the meeting. I will also need either transportation to and from the bank and post office or will need someone to take care of those responsibilities for me before the next ASC. I will be able to continue with the tracking and bookkeeping part of my responsibilities of being the treasurer." -Dennis E

SUBCOMMITTEE REPORTS

PUBLIC RELATIONS: Please see the proposed budget for 2027 for PR. -Creston C

LITERATURE: Nothing to report. -Doris R

POLICY: Dear trusted servants, up until this morning I believed my daughters musical was this evening. It turns out I can't read and it's at 2:00pm. So I won't be able to be there today. I don't have much to report other than that I'd like to open a discussion about the purpose of the policy chairs. However, since I'll be absent this month, I'm going to wait until next month. In the meantime, some questions to think about: What do we want the purpose of the policy chair to be? Should every member of the ASC or ASC Executive committee (or both) be knowledgeable on policy? -Alex C

ACTIVITIES: Hello SENANA, Not much to report today. Coming up next we have our first bowling of the season on November 14th! After that is the overstuff on thanksgiving! We hope to see everyone continue to come and enjoy all the fun to be had in our fellowship!
In loving service
-Mariah W.
