GROUPS THAT WOULD LIKE TO READ REPORTS OR BRING UP ISSUES

- Saturday Night Live’s Alternate GSR Group Report: “I have been Alternate GSR since about last November. Since then, I found out our GSR wasn't going to Area, so I stepped up and have been going the last few. Last night I became GSR and Larrisa became Alternate GSR. Since then, I have also become the group’s Treasurer and Secretary. I noticed we didn't even have a balance in our Treasurer book, so I stepped up to get the books in order. Before I stepped up, we didn't even know our group’s balance. We just started using a business meeting format and are learning how to do that. We still need the 12 Concepts For NA Service. We are in the process of getting a group policy in order. A few months ago, using and distributing Baby Blues was brought up by a home group member because we had no literature. A month ago, they brought up photocopying the Fifth Edition Basic Text minus the stories so that could have literature to distribute. They also brought up their last home group that shut down, Ladies and Gents, and said they were donating their literature and key tags and supplies from that group to ours. It was known at that time that Baby Blues being used in that group, although this member hasn't stated what all is being donated to our group as far as literature is concerned. I have reached out to my sponsor and other experienced members of NA for the past few months for guidance, but I am reaching out to the Area for further support and direction and for support with literature.”
- As of June 2nd, Shane P will be the new GSR for the Never Alone group. Thank you for the opportunity to serve. I have attached Shane’s email to be put on the distribution list for the monthly minutes.
- Sunday Night Solutions has to meet upstairs at City Impact throughout the month of June. Enter through the main doors facing 33rd Street. Please note that per the facility rules, children and animals are NOT allowed upstairs. This space is not handicapped accessible. If you have any questions, please reach out to Bekka H.
