RCM:

Greetings SENANA ASC! Region presented lots of information for this service body and for the GSRs to take back to groups. There is nothing for the groups/ASC to vote on for the coming July Region. Please note that in this report there are several resource links for you to find information on World Services, upcoming literature reviews, and options for service commitments in the upcoming Plains States Zonal Forum. I have also included the Treasurer's report and a summary of the other ASCs in our region. Please share this information with your home group members and other interested parties! NA is growing and making lots of changes to the service structure and I encourage you to take the opportunity to be part of our fellowship.
