TREASURER: Good afternoon fellow servants, I am out of town on another trip but wanted to make a brief report. I am currently trying to determine how our rent is being paid automatically and will report back. I have managed to move literature to electronic payments and am working on the phone line. As this process evolves, I am discovering additional policy changes I will be recommending. Just a reminder, we will need committees to work on their budgets as they will need to be submitted no later than December, to be voted on in January, to take effect in February. Yours in Service, Dennis E
